

2008 InterVarsity Chicago Golf Outing Pledge Form

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship is an interdenominational campus ministry. The purpose of IVCF is to establish and advance at colleges and universities witnessing communities of students and faculty who follow Jesus as Savior and Lord: growing in love for God, God's Word, God's people of every ethnicity and culture and God's purposes in the world.

InterVarsity staff work on college campuses to help students and faculty develop and grow in their relationship with God and to become committed to him and his Kingdom. Each staff is required to raise the funds for their salary, expenses and benefits. The purpose of the annual Golf Event is for you to partner with these staff financially and to have fun while you do it.

By supporting InterVarsity you will be contribution to programs such as:

- Bible studies and prayer on campus
- Weekly chapter meetings
- Training and evangelism
- Chicago Urban Project: Six-eight weeks in which students minister to people in the inner city through local churches and neighborhood ministries
- Global projects: Taking students on cross-cultural learning experiences with other international students throughout the world
