“Building Relationships” Will Be the Focus of Feb. 13 Clergy Meeting
• Randy Schoof will lead ACMN workshop

Aurora, Ill. Feb. 5, 2007 (The Religion Wire™) — The Aurora Christian Ministry Network(ACMN) is inviting Aurora and Fox Valley area pastors and Christian leaders to its next ACMN meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 13, 9 a.m., at First Presbyterian Church, 325 E. Downer Place, Aurora.

The morning meeting’s FREE workshop speaker will be Randy Schoof, pastor of Warehouse Church. Schoof’s workshop topic, “Building Relationships among Churches,” will be a continuation of the last several month’s discussions.

At the November meeting, Schoof of Warehouse Church shared about “city reaching” and that this will only take place as leaders in the Christian community begin to connect in a more meaningful way. The December and January meetings brainstormed what it means to be the Church in Aurora, the benefits of true biblical community and what do individuals and churches need to do to impact our city for Christ.

For more information on ACMN and its Feb. 13 meeting with Randy Schoof, call (630) 879-8828, or visit its website at <http://www.acmn.org>. Refreshments and “goodies” will be served. RSVP is requested.
