Christian Leaders Are Invited to Hear Author Discuss Unity on June 15

• Dr. John H. Armstrong of ACT3 at River Valley Community Church

Aurora, Ill. June 7, 2010 (The Religion Wire™) — The Aurora Christian Ministry

Network(ACMN) is inviting Aurora and Fox Valley area pastors and Christian leaders to the next ACMN meeting on Tuesday, June 15, 9-10:30 a.m., at River Valley Community Church, 1655 Bowman Dr. (off of Sullivan Rd./east of Orchard), Aurora, Ill.

Dr. John H. Armstrong will discuss his new book “Your Church is Too Small: Why Unity in Christ’s Mission Is Vital to the Future of the Church” (Zondervan, March 2010) at this special ACMN meeting.

This book presents a vision of the unity possible for Christians across social, cultural, racial, and denominational lines. When Jesus’ followers seek unity through participation in the kingdom of God and the mission of Christ, they demonstrate God’s character to a watching world.

Some of the endorsements for this book include: Chuck Colson, founder, Prison Fellowship Ministries; Timothy George, senior editor, Christianity Today; Fr. Patrick Henry Reardon, senior editor, Touchstone; and Chris Castaldo, author of Holy Ground: Walking with Jesus as a Former Catholic. View these endorsements at the following link... <http://www.yourchurchistoosmall.com/aboutthebook.asp>.
