“Celebrate Jesus Together is a great opportunity for the local churches in Aurora to worship with each other. We want to show that we love each other, and honor the fact that God has placed a rich mosaic of ethnicities, worship styles, and giftings within the larger church of Aurora,” notes Randy Schoof, CJT chairperson, and pastor of Warehouse Church.

This city-wide worship event is in partnership with the Celebrate Our Children festival, McCarty Park, Aug. 23, 12-6 p.m.
