Illinois Cities Proclaim Day... June 8 “Children’s Day”

- Mayors of Aurora and Batavia Proclaim Special Day

Batavia, Ill., May 24, 2008 (The Religion Wire™) —

Two weeks from this Memorial Day weekend, the second Sunday in June — June 8, 2008, is “Children’s Day.”

This week two Illinois city mayors joined the Illinois governor in proclaiming the day. Across America, many individuals, groups, and churches, are trying to bring attention to this special day for children that predates both Mother’s and Father’s Day.

Last month, Illinois governor Rod R. Blagojevich issued a Children’s Day proclamation for the second year in row. Also repeating are two Illinois mayors, on Monday (May 19), Mayor Thomas J. Weisner of Aurora, Illinois’ second largest city, issued a proclamation; as did Mayor Jeffery D. Schielke of Batavia on Thursday (May 22).

John Ross, advocate for Children’s Day and part of a growing movement spearheaded by the website www.nationalchildrensday.us, expressed gratitude for these new proclamations. “I’m so grateful for the continued support of these two mayors for Children’s Day. This is a true blessing!”

The website www.nationalchildrensday.us, supporting the revival of Children’s Day on the second Sunday in June, is stressing this day as a day of celebration and commitment by parent and individuals to children.

The Children’s Day website offers helps and challenges parents, individuals, churches/houses of worship, schools/places of education, government/community and businesses to sign commitment cards directed at affirming America’s children. They pledge to “commit myself(ourself), in the coming year, to love, cherish, nurture(physical, mental, emotional, & spiritual needs), and affirm...” They can also make a commitment beyond America to the world’s children.

Children’s Day observations in the United States predate both Mother’s and Father’s Day. This day dates from the 1860s and earlier. The Methodist Episcopal Church at the Methodist Conference of 1868 recommended that the second Sunday in June be annually observed as Children’s Day.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 1883 designated the “the second Sabbath in June as Children’s Day.” The spring/summer 2005 issue of The Journal of Presbyterian History highlighted Children’s Day in the Presbyterian Church.

Chase’s Calendar of Events cites Children’s Sunday and notes that The Commonwealth of Massachusetts issues an annual proclamation for the second Sunday in June.

Numerous churches and denominations currently observe the second Sunday in June including the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the Church of the Nazarene.
