

We the People...

We petition the Obama administration to

Have the President proclaim the second Sunday in June as “Children’s Day” in the United States.

We the People...

We petition the Obama administration to

Have the President proclaim the second Sunday in June as “Children’s Day” in the United States.

A new petition has been created on We the People, a new feature on WhiteHouse.gov, and you can make a difference.

Will you add your name to the petition? Can you also spread the the word about this drive? If this petition gets 100,000 signatures by June 03, 2013, the White House will review it and respond! Those 13 and older can participate in the petition drive.

We the People allows anyone to create and sign petitions asking the Obama Administration to take action on a range of issues. If a petition gets enough support, the Obama Administration will issue an official response.

You can view and sign the petition at this link:

<http://wh.gov/zKoN>

Children's Day observations in the United States predate both Mother's and Father's Day. The day to celebrate children dates from the 1860s and earlier.

Since 2007, the governor of Illinois has proclaimed "Children's Day" on the second Sunday in June. Also such cities as Aurora, Ill.; Batavia, Ill.; Fort Collins, Colo.; and Vancouver, Wash.; have issued proclamations.

Chase's Calendar of Events cites Children's Sunday and notes that The Commonwealth of Massachusetts issues an annual proclamation.

Numerous churches and denominations currently observe the second Sunday in June including the African Methodist Episcopal Church, African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

The website www.nationalchildrensday.us brings attention to this special day.

A new petition has been created on We the People, a new feature on WhiteHouse.gov, and you can make a difference.

Will you add your name to the petition? Can you also spread the the word about this drive? If this petition gets 100,000 signatures by June 03, 2013, the White House will review it and respond! Those 13 and older can participate in the petition drive.

We the People allows anyone to create and sign petitions asking the Obama Administration to take action on a range of issues. If a petition gets enough support, the Obama Administration will issue an official response.

You can view and sign the petition at this link:

<http://wh.gov/zKoN>

Children's Day observations in the United States predate both Mother's and Father's Day. The day to celebrate children dates from the 1860s and earlier.

Since 2007, the governor of Illinois has proclaimed "Children's Day" on the second Sunday in June. Also such cities as Aurora, Ill.; Batavia, Ill.; Fort Collins, Colo.; and Vancouver, Wash.; have issued proclamations.

Chase's Calendar of Events cites Children's Sunday and notes that The Commonwealth of Massachusetts issues an annual proclamation.

Numerous churches and denominations currently observe the second Sunday in June including the African Methodist Episcopal Church, African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

The website www.nationalchildrensday.us brings attention to this special day.